Introducing 2025-2027 Committee

About ACSG

The Assessment Centre Study Group (ACSG) is a South African professional body dedicated to advancing methodologies and best practices in assessment centres and assessments. As a non-profit organisation, ACSG is led by a biannually elected committee of volunteers. Through events, collaboration, and continuous professional development, ACSG supports the growth, capability, and effectiveness of assessment practitioners and researchers.

ACSG Committee

The ACSG committee consists of dedicated volunteers elected every two years. Their leadership and vision guide our initiatives and ensure the continuous growth of our community.

The Assessment Centre Study Group is a special interest group of practitioners who present annual events on assessments and assessment centres each year. The group operates professionally and financially independently and consists of members and volunteers elected every second year. The chairperson is elected out of the members and resumes responsibility for the functioning of the study group.
